

Town of Greater Napanee Council Highlights

Special Meeting of Council for December 6, 2023

Capital Budget

Council held a dedicated session to discuss the 2024 Draft Capital Budget. The complete capital budget presentation and fleet presentation are available on the December 6th agenda. Staff were directed to gather more information on specific items for council to provide further direction at the next budget session.

Curbside Collection for Garbage and Recycling in 2024

A special levy of $200 will be applied to all residential properties eligible for curbside garbage and recycling collection in order to cover the base cost of the weekly service. 50 bag tags will be mailed out to each property where the levy is applied. If additional bag tags are required throughout the year, they can be purchased from the Town of Greater Napanee Municipal Administration Centre or local retailers. The rate per tag remains at $4.

Next Budget Session

The next Special Session of Council to discuss the 2024 budget will be held on Thursday, January 18th, 2024, beginning at 10 am.
